5 Steps for Implementing a Successful 1:1 Environment ... A 1:1 environment should be the goal of every learning institution; however, this is not about devices, it's about access. I imagine every school superintendent, principal, and teacher would agree that it is in their best interest to provide their students with the best access to the most current, scholarly information available. There is no doubt that this idea is embedded in every school's mission statement. So let's dig a little into the question of what a 1:1 environment looks like. 1 to 1 Learning - Education Week American Education News ...
